Office of the Columbian Building and Loan Association.

Richmond Va. Oct 21, 1898.

AT A CALLED MEDITING OF THE Board of Directors of the Columbian Building and Loan Association, of Richmond. Va., held this day at the office of the company, it was resolved:

In the death of our fellow-member, THOMAS POTTS. Esq., vice-president and treasurer, this association has lost a servant "tried and true." and this board a comrade and friend honored and beloved. Consplenous for his zeal in the support of his convictions, he was yet retifug and modest in his personal deportment. Trained by a long and large experience to executive work, he was a chosen leader in many important business enterprises, and measured fully up to the demands of every trust committed or duty assigned him. Conscience was his teacher, and he was a fearless servant, ever faithful to every obligation.

In the deliberations of this board and Office of the Columbian Building and

In the deliberations of this board and in the administration of the affairs of this company we shall greatly miss his wise and watchful counsel, and we herewith tender to his afflicted family our sincere condocence, and direct that these resolutions be entered upon the official L. D. AYLETT.
